For such a small geographic region in the Midwest, Saugatuck/Douglas offers a surprisingly sophisticated and inspired culinary experience sure to please any palate. From seasonal specialties and fresh farm-to-table dishes to casual homestyle cooking and innovative small plates—you'll find it all here and more.

Nestled within Michigan's Fruit Belt region, our coastal getaway is rich in agricultural diversity and abundance. Picturesque farms, orchards, and vineyards invite guests to experience their food and drink right at the source, elevating farm-to-table fare with the bounty of what's locally harvested.

All within a few square miles, you can indulge in fresh twists from award-winning chefs or experience common casual dishes done uncommonly well.

Create Your Perfect Picnic Experience

There's nothing quite like the simple pleasure of pairing the scenic outdoors with some fantastic culinary fare. To help you take full advantage of the beauty of the Art Coast, we've rounded up a list of our favorite picnic spots and offer some suggestions on where to grab delicious eats to go.

1

Places to Picnic

Known for its beautiful sunsets, the West Side County Park in Fennville tops our list as the best location for a family-friendly picnic. Wades Bayou Memorial Park in Douglas is a quaint and quiet spot on the western shore of the Kalamazoo Lake and river area that is ideal for a romantic picnic. A great place to unwind along the water, Coghlin Park in Saugatuck overlooks the scenic Kalamazoo River and features a large grassy area perfect for spreading out a blanket. Also located next to the Kalamazoo River in downtown Saugatuck, Wicks Park is a locals' favorite spot featuring soothing waterfront views.

What To Nosh On

Stop by Isabel's Market + Eatery or Farmhouse Deli & Pantry beforehand to pick up an assortment of freshly made, locally-sourced culinary creations, such as gourmet sandwiches, salads, baked goods, and charcuterie. Or pre-order a classic French picnic for two from Lulu Cadieux, which comes beautifully presented in a wicker and canvas picnic basket that is yours to take home.

Elevate Your Experience

Take your picnic game to the next level by arranging for a luxury brunch or sunset picnic at Oval Beach through Sincerely, K&J. They'll curate the luxury picnic of your dreams, complete with a styled table scape and custom hand-lettered welcome sign, to create a one-of-a-kind experience that is relaxing and stress free. Or for a more unusual—yet highly memorable—picnic experience, rent a classic runabout boat at Retro Boat Rentals and enjoy your meal out on the Kalamazoo River. Food and beverages may be ordered from The Old Boat House, where they provide a cooler with ice and will pack it for you to enjoy on the water.
